

Christopher Brooks Young
Instructor, Philosophy Department
Principia College
Elsah, IL 62028
618-374-5225
chris.young@principia.edu

Education

- 2006 M.A., Philosophy, University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, NM
Thesis: Strife and Death: Heidegger's Debt to Heraclitus
- 2000 B.A., Philosophy, Fort Lewis College, Durango, CO
-

Teaching Experience

- 2006-Present Assistant Professor, Philosophy, Principia College
Major Advising, Capstone Advising, Committee Work
Courses:
- Critical Thinking
 - Introduction to Philosophy
 - Integrated Learning Course
 - Introduction to Ancient Greek Philosophy
 - Philosophic Classics
 - History of Philosophy Survey
 - Philosophy of Religion
 - Eastern Thought
 - The Problem of Evil
 - Philosophy and Film
 - Topics: Truth
 - Project Course: Moral Discourse
 - Ancient Philosophy
 - Modern Philosophy
 - Contemporary Philosophy
 - Epistemology
 - Ethical Theory
 - Advanced Topics: Heidegger, Teaching Philosophy, Film and Philosophy, Marcus Aurelius
 - Junior Seminar Topics: Existentialism, Philosophy of Law, Literature, Feminist Philosophy, and Zizek
 - Capstone in Philosophy

- 2020 (Spring) Director, Nepal & India Abroad Program
Designed and led a semester long study abroad program that involved an interdisciplinary group storytelling project. Students produced 4 short projects on issues they researched and investigated in country.
Courses taught while abroad:
- Eastern Thought
 - Country Studies: Nepal & India
 - P.E. Course: Hiking and Backpacking
- 2018 (Fall) Drop in Faculty, Greece, Turkey, & Italy Abroad Program
- 2016 (Fall) Drop in Faculty, Greece & Italy Abroad Program
Helped design and integrate a Philosophy component and course into a successful abroad program.
- 2015 (Spring) Co-Director, India & Nepal Abroad Program, Principia College
Designed and led a semester long study abroad program that involved an interdisciplinary group storytelling project. Students produced 4 short documentary films on issues they researched and investigated in country.
Courses taught while abroad:
- Living Religions of the East
 - Country Studies: Nepal & India
 - P.E. Course: Hiking and Backpacking
- 2010 (Fall) Co-Director, Nepal Abroad Program, Principia College
Designed and led a 10 week study abroad program that involved an interdisciplinary group project that resulted in an assessment of sustainable tourism practices in Western Nepal.
Courses taught while abroad:
- Living Religions of the East
 - Country Studies: Nepal
 - P.E. Course: Hiking and Backpacking
- 2008-2011 Instructor, Pre Fall Writing Seminar, Principia College
- 2005-2006 Visiting Faculty, Philosophy, Principia College
Taught courses, Freshman Advising, Capstone Advising, Committee Work
- 2003 T.A English Department, University of New Mexico
Courses: Composition 1 and Composition 2

1997-2002 Camp Director and Outdoor Educator, Adventure Unlimited Ranches
Responsibilities- Staff Management, Program Design, Safety Supervisor,
Outdoor Education

Conference Presentations

- 2010 “Team-Based Learning”
Co-presenter at the Lilly Conference, Greensboro, NC
- 2010 Co-Facilitator for the Post Graduation Assessment Workshop for Principia
College
-

Conferences Attended

- 2011 The Higher Learning Commission’s Academy Round Table, Chicago, IL
- 2009 The Association of American Colleges and Universities Annual Meeting on General Education, Seattle, Washington
- 2008 Conference on College and University Teaching, Lilly Conference,
Greensboro, NC
- 2007 “What Is To Be Done With Austin?” by Nancy Bauer, Ph.D., Tufts University
University of New Mexico Speakers Series, Albuquerque, New Mexico
-

Professional Associations

Member of The American Association of Philosophy Teachers
Member of the American Philosophy Association

Service Activities

- 2020 (Spring) Nepal & India Abroad: Director
- 2016-present Capital Academic Building Project (CAP) Core Team Memeber
- 2015-2019 Humanities Unit Head
- 2015 (Spring) India & Nepal Abroad: Director
- 2013-2014 Director of Principia Abroad programs
- 2011-present The Academy for Assessing Student Learning
- 2011-present Faculty Sponsor: Intramurals
- 2010-2011 General Education Implementation Team
- 2010 (Fall) Nepal Abroad: Director
- 2009-2010 General Education Development Team
- 2008-2010 Assessment Faculty Learning Community

2008-2009 Faculty Mentor for Principia College Women's Varsity Basketball
2008-2009 Faculty Council: member at large
2007-2009 Faculty Sponsor: Philosophy Club
2006-2010 Teaching Excellence Group
2005-2007 Faculty Sponsor: Native American Awareness Club